President's Message

It's a new day in Tuxedo Park!

Last year we successfully restored our association back to financial health and attracted some of Tuxedo Park's best and brightest to join our management team. What this means for you, our neighbours, is that we now have the time and money to invest in your ideas to make Tuxedo Park a more vibrant, fun and loving place to live for all of us.

Tammy Maloney

Do you have a passion or interest you would like to share with your neighbours?

If your answer to this question is yes, we can help! With our cute hall, gorgeous park, newsletter and budget for food and drinks, together we can bring your ideas to life.

Last year we helped artists share their talent with our kids in order to create gifts for our seniors. We supported our Spanish-speaking community in their desire to share their food and culture with our residents in a Christmas celebration that was enjoyed by all. We also helped a local DJ and his love of music bring our families together at our now famous Jelly Bean Dance!

Joe Mason 1923-2014

(and his One Man Band)

It saddens me to say that Mr. Joe Mason, a friend, neighbor and community icon passed away suddenly on Sunday, February 9th at the Rockyview Hospital. For anyone that spent any time between Highland Park Community Centre and Tuxedo Community Centre you would have seen him at a summer BBQ or picnic singing and playing one of the classics "Help me Make it through the night" or "Your Cheating Heart". His "One Man Band" consisted of a flat bed trailer with his gear that held a bass drum, snare drum, guitars, harmonica, bass and sound equipment. During the summer months we would be sitting in our back yard being entertained by Joe practicing for his next gig. My husband John would always yell over to him "turn it up Joe" and we would be shakin' a leg in our backyard all evening. Joe started playing in 1956 at picnics, BBQs, auctions, bake sales, Legion halls, and seniors' lodges. He shared bills with Premier Ernest Manning, Jay (Tonto) Silverheels, Wilf Carter and Slim Pickens.

Joe's life story is one of triumph. As a boy of 11, a natural gas explosion leveled his home in Lethbridge and put him and his father in hospital for six months with severe burns. I believe this is what gave Joe his inspiration and optimism. Joe was one of the first neighbors my husband and I met upon moving to Highland Park 20 years ago. He was the most colorful character on the block. Those summer nights will never be the same. I would like to tip my hat to you Joe and wish you the best in your new journey. You were and are "ONE OF A KIND".

Edmonton Trail Road Reconstruction Project Update

Major Roads Reconstruction Program

The City of Calgary has a program in place dedicated to reconstructing Calgary's aging roadways – the Major Roads Reconstruction Program. Elbow Drive, between 4 Street and Glenmore Tr. S.W., and Centre Street, between 42 and 54 Avenues, have already been reconstructed under this program.

Edmonton Trail, from 16 Avenue to 41 Avenue, is the next major roadway on the list for reconstruction. The project will be completed over two years. In 2013, Edmonton Trail, from 28 to 41 Avenues N.E. was reconstructed under this program. In the spring, crews will complete any minor remaining work in this area, such as concrete and landscaping work next to the road.

Edmonton Trail Road reconstruction begins spring 2014

The next phase of the Edmonton Trail Road Reconstruction project includes the area from 16 Avenue to 28 Avenue N.E. This work is planned to start in spring 2014 and should be complete by fall 2014. Any minor work not completed in 2014, such as landscaping, will be completed the following spring.

The primary focus of this work is on removing the existing pavement and rebuilding the roadway to improve the road's condition. The road will not be widened during construction. Streetlights will be replaced and sidewalks and driveways will be rebuilt as required. Any existing landscaping disturbed during construction will be repaired.

What will happen during construction?

- Traffic will often be limited to one lane in each direction and delays should be expected.
- Intersecting roads, alleys, and driveways may be closed periodically throughout construction. Any business, residence or service directly impacted by construction will receive information notices explaining the impacts.
- The use of large trucks and other equipment will create noise, vibrations, and dust. The City of Calgary works with their contractors to keep noise and dust disturbance to a minimum.
- Bus stops may be re-located.
- More information about construction start dates and where construction will start will be provided when it is available. Start dates are weather dependent.

Survey results

A survey on the effectiveness of communication during Edmonton Trail road construction in 2013 from 28 to 41 Avenues was available from Feb. 24 to March 17. We will use the results to improve communication in upcoming road construction projects. We will post survey results on the project web page and report on the results in community newsletters in April.

At City Hall by Gian-Carlo Carr

At the January 31st Strategic Meeting of Council, we dedicated funding (thanks largely to the $52 Million) for the first ten years of The Route Ahead (www.routeahead.ca). At the top of the priority list are the Green Line (the combined southeast (SETWAY) and North Central LRT lines) and the Central East line (connecting the communities of Greater Forest Lawn along 17th Avenue SE accessing downtown through Inglewood/Ramsay).

These lines are critical to the future of our city because they'll help move commuters who are currently underserved and they'll also focus on Transit Oriented Development (TOD). This means that every station area will become a mini-downtown and when networked together along these lines, more of us will be able to contemplate a high-quality urban lifestyle that is, for the first time in Calgary's modern history, not car-mandatory. We are actively pursuing federal and provincial matching funds through the Building Canada Fund, the GreenTRIP, and Municipal Sustainability Initiative grants. A great way to support this effort is to join LRT on the Green, a citizen movement working towards achieving the Green line. Please visit www.lrtonthegreen.ca.

While transit coupled with TOD is the most significant way that we can alleviate the traffic, environmental and financial issues Calgary faces on account of our sprawl, another is through encouraging cycling as a viable alternative to motorized transportation. If you are interested in being up to date on either the Route Ahead or cycling, please contact my office at ward09@calgary.ca or call 403.268.5330 to be added to our electronic mailing list.

Welcome to Spring Tuxedo Parkians.

I am so glad that winter is done, and Spring has sprung. I am sure I am not the only one feeling the urge to start cleaning, purging and getting ready for summertime.

Here are some ways to welcome Spring while maintaining the health of your house and family:

1. Welcome Spring with plants, flowers or colorful art displays in your windows
2. Ensure you have enough fire alarms and carbon monoxide alarms, replace the batteries
3. Report local graffiti to 311 for cleanup
4. Replace outdoor fixture light bulbs that have burnt out
5. Ensure drainage issues are addressed and your sump pumps are ready to start pumping the spring thaw away from your house
6. Clean out your street's sewer grate if it is clogged, or call 311 for assistance
7. Ensure eaves troughs are cleaned out, put down and ready to work before the Spring showers start
8. Tidy up alley garbage that may have collected
9. Contact 311 if you have any concerns regarding safety or tidiness in our neighborhood
10. Ask your neighbors or your community association for help with cleanups, safety issues, garbage hauling, beautifying, block parties or anything else you desire in our community.

We love Tuxedo Park!

North Central LRT Project update

We spent a lot of time last spring and summer talking to Calgarians about the North Central LRT. These conversations continue to help us shape the project, and more opportunities to have your say will be provided in April and May. The conversations we had with people across the city were valuable in helping us understand what is important to our community, how future transportation networks can make our communities better, and how people think we should evaluate the different options we have. This past fall, the action continued as we worked on analyzing and evaluating potential route options.

Refining the Route Options for Further Study

Using the community's input about how to evaluate our options, we sat down to the task of analyzing several route options including Nose Creek Valley, 4 Street NW, Centre Street North and Edmonton Trail NE, north of 16 Avenue and south of 96 Avenue. From this evaluation, we narrowed it down to two of our highest-ranking options for further study:

- 1) Centre Street North, at street level (at-grade)
- 2) Edmonton Trail, at street level (at-grade)

We evaluated the route options based on criteria like:

- Affordability • Safety, security and accessibility • Reducing greenhouse gas emissions

In our evaluations we also considered options for integrating the North Central line with downtown service.

Next steps

We'll be out speaking with Calgarians about our short-listed options this spring. You're invited to attend upcoming events, including a workshop and a series of Open Houses in April and May. Additional information will be posted online in the near future with event dates.

City Administration took an update on the North Central LRT project to Council's Transportation and Transit Committee on March 12, 2014. You can read the report on Calgary Transit's Route Ahead website at www.routeahead.ca. Sincerely,

Ryan Murray, Transportation Planning
